

Haute Beauty Smile Experts Fill Us In On What Keeps Them Motivated

DOCTOR'S TALK, NEWS, WELLNESS March 16, 2021 Alana Garcia

Haute Beauty smile experts share one thing in their daily routine that keeps them motivated every day. Here's what they had to say:

Dr. Michelle Luis | Smile Expert | North Miami

I consistently start every morning with quiet time. While I drink my coffee, I pray and meditate on being grateful for what I have, had, or what will occur in my life. Most days, I work out in the mornings too, but some days I start too early and I am not able to do both. On those days, I choose a quiet time and will attempt to get my work out done in the evening. I find that prioritizing my mind on spirituality and gratitude keeps me energized and prepared for the possible challenges of any given day.

Dr. Michelle Luis, a south Florida native, practices as a general dentist with substantive experience with fillings, crown, and bridge, veneers, extractions, dentures, Invisalign, and root canals. She also has expertise with a number of cosmetic procedures to aid patients in looking and feeling their very best, including teeth whitening, and Botox. She holds a Master's degree in Biomedical Science and a Doctorate in Dentistry from Nova Southeastern University. Dr. Luis is a member of the American Dental Association (ADA) and the Florida Dental Association (FDA).
